

Thou Shalt Not Tempt Me* by Elder Baldwin

[Verse]

The morning star came tempting me
Saying, “Son of man, come worship me”
I said, “Who art thou? It can’t be thee
I was just in the presence of a heavenly being
I had to be transfigured just to behold His glory
But with my own eyes I can look upon thee
Get thee hence Satan, you can’t tempt me
I’m a son of God, the God of glory”

[Chorus]

Christ said, “Ain’t it in your writings? Ye are Gods, ye are children of the Almighty Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God, your Majesty” I say unto you, “Thou shalt not tempt me”

[Verse]

Just two thousand young against lamanite many
Having fled once before to avoid a bloody defeat
Helaman asked them “Will you return to fight with me?”
They said let us go with the power of the King of Kings
Fighting for their wives, their lives and everything
They rehearsed the courage of their mothers’ teachings
Not a single youth fell, there were no dead bodies
Won with the strength of God, the God of Glory

[Interlude]

Temptation, heart-aching and fear of defeat

Thou Shalt Not Tempt Me* by Elder Baldwin

They are always coming at us in the lives we're living
But we are so much more powerful and divine than we think

We are on our way to heaven, heavenly beings

[Verse]

Christ in the garden is a testimony
That even we can overcome all things
His death on the cross is convincing
That even when we die, we are not ending
The empty tomb is our rejoicing
That even like Christ we'll be resurrected beings
It's written in the law of what we can be Christ overcame the world, the same we're overcoming

[Chorus]
