

My Soul* by Caydn Baldwin

I find myself amidst the gloom
Where confusion has taken control
I feel myself adrift to doom
For fear has entrapped my soul
But in my time of desperation
I look to God in search of thee
I wait for the Lord of my Salvation
Knowing that He will hear me
Oh my enemy, rejoice not
For when I fall I shall arise
I sit in darkness that ye wrought
But behold, the Lord shall be my light
You thought you had me conquered
You thought you took your toll
But I will fight forever
For there is light within my soul
